Prophets of Old Were First to See Coming Of Prince of Peace

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25 — Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.— For centuries prophets have forecast the birth of a Christ Child, and historians have made many references to the coming of a Messiah.

These are some of the names which have been applied to Him. Immanuel, Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace, The Lord of the Highest, and Jesus.

Magi Followed Star To Find Son of Mary

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25 — Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — The mysticism and beauty of the Orient has mingled with the simplicity and reverence of a little town made holy by a divine occurrence.

Three sages from the East, impressive in the richness of their many-colored silks and gold insignia, walked the dusty streets of Bethlehem today and told of their journeys across desert and plain to lay rare gifts at the feet of the tiny babe.

They spoke briefly and eloquently of the prophecy. "There shall come a star out of Jacob, and a sceptre shall arise out of Israel," and they described the brilliance and comet-like action of this star which had arisen in the east, and which they had followed until it halted over the Judean city.

These three Magi who bear the names of Caspar, Melchior and Balthazar, were familiar with the Hebrew prophecies which foretold the advent of the Messiah, and had long waited for the star, they said. To prepare for the promised King of Israel, they sold their possessions and equipped a caravan.

Last night, surrounded by humble shepherds and barnyard animals, they fell to their knees and worshipped the young child with great joy, and presented him

Inn Keep's Faith

In Miracle Strengthens

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—Bewilderment marked the features today of the keeper of the little inn where Mary and Joseph sought shelter last night. But behind the bewilderment could be sensed a dawning belief.

"There was something different about her face," he said of Mary. "It was tired—but different. And when Joseph turned away leading the ass she was riding, something about him, too, made me want to call them back."

"I went to the stable this morning," he mused. "Only it didn't seem like the same stable, somehow."

'Mary Smiled At Me!' Simply Clad Boy Says

NAZARETH, Dec. 25 — Beginning of the Year of Our Lord 1.—A young boy—one of the band of shepherds which was visited on the hill near here last night by a heavenly host of angels who told them of the birth of the baby prophet, was a shy narrator of events transpiring at the stable when the presence of the child became known.

Roughly clad, and plainly awed by his part in the divine drama, he gave the only clear impression gained of Mary, the mother of the Holy Child. The other shepherds were too inspired, and the wise men from the East too preoccupied with the identity of the infant to notice details which the eye of a child seized upon.

"Everything seem so quiet in the stable," he replied to questions. "I noticed that even the pigeons didn't coo like they usually do."

"Did Mary or Joseph say anything to anyone?" he was asked. The lad flushed, then confided: "Joseph asked me to help him fix the hay so it would be more comfortable, and then Mary smiled at me after she had been looking at the baby, and so I asked her if they didn't have better places in the inn. She answered, low-like: 'There wasn't any room for us.'"

"I felt sorry for her; and then she smiled again and just whispered: 'But I like it here. The inn was so noisy, and the streets are full of loud people. The animals are peaceful. You mustn't feel sorry for us.'"

"And do you know, somehow I wasn't. I still feel strange. It is as though something too wonderful to talk about has happened to me. I can't explain it. But I feel so peaceful inside."

Herod in Dread, Seeks to Delude Sages from East

Manger Miracle Told Over and Over As Groups Collect

JERUSALEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—An apprehensive Herod sits on the throne of Judah, and is much disturbed at the miraculous birth of Jesus in Bethlehem.

This was brought to light with the recent visit here of sages from the East who were seeking the newborn King of the Jews. Having heard of their inquiries, Herod hastily called together his chief priests and scribes who write the laws, and demanded them to tell him more of the prophecies of Christ's coming.

Then he summoned the wise men for questioning, and led them to believe that, if they would go to Bethlehem, discover the Child and return and tell him

Herod's Spies

Departing Hurriedly For Jerusalem

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—Several known spies and two sycophants of the court of King Herod, who for the greater part of the morning have been furtively watching the stable where in the King of Glory rests in his swaddling clothes, left on camels bound presumably for Jerusalem.

Herod is known to be extremely interested in the journeys of the Magi to Bethlehem.

Messiah Born Into World Torn by Internal Strife

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—Christ was born last night. They say he is a king. Into a world torn with strife, into a dictator-ridden country that trembles at the clashing swords of Rome, has come the ray of light so long awaited by the troubled people.

It is a far cry from the golden pillars of Solomon's temple to the crude stalls of a cattle barn.

For hundreds of years the memories and tales of the glories of ancient Jerusalem have been treasured in the hearts of a scattered race. For generations they have unrolled their papyrus scripts and reassured themselves that one day a Redeemer of Mankind would restore their kingdom. With mighty armies He would vanquish a tyrant Caesar, and rebuild their shining city.

They thought of Him in terms of shining raiment and a golden throne; they didn't expect swaddling clothes and manger hay.

They could see Him proclaimed by heralds with silver trumpets; they didn't think his companions could be rough haired oxen and sleepy-eyed goats.

They expected urns of smoldering incense, but not the aroma of a stable.

Multitudes would prostrate themselves on the ground in His presence, they believed; they didn't suppose that a harried innkeeper would suggest that the royal family sleep in the barn because all his rooms were full of taxpayers.

Some say that this baby born last night to Mary and Joseph of Nazareth couldn't possibly be the Messiah foretold in Scriptures. But there are others who remember the words of the prophet Isaiah, of Jeremiah and of Micah and with unspeakable joy hail Him as the Saviour of Israel.

Mary and Joseph Both Descendants Of Royal Line

NAZARETH, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—Although Mary, mother of the Saviour, and her husband, Joseph, live among the humbler folk here, where he is a carpenter, they are of the royal family of Judah and the descendants of King David.

The Jews keep exact lists of their genealogies thus explaining the present situation.

For the old prophets said that the Christ child was to be born at Bethlehem whereas Mary lives in Nazareth 50 miles distant. But when the Emperor Augustus called for the regular 10-year census he ordered Herod to register the people according to the tribe to which they belong. Mary and Joseph belonging to the family of David were required to go to Bethlehem.

Lowly Shepherds with Flocks on Nearby Hills First To Note Miracle of Celestial Visitation

Long-Awaited Messiah Born in Lowly Manger

Page 1 of our Christmas issue today tells the story of Christ's birth as it might have been told if modern newspapers had been printed at that time. Today's current news appears on inside pages. The Bethlehem story was mainly written by a member of the Scottsbluff (Nebr.) Star-Herald staff, and the dispatches are based on the story of the Christ child as it was written in the Bible.

Great Joy Pervades City of Bethlehem

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25 — Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—It is impossible to describe the feeling of great joy that pervades Bethlehem today as the coming of the long-heralded Messiah is realized by the majority of its inhabitants.

The shepherds probably experienced the most poignant sensation for it was to them that the news was first given. The little group who were guarding their flocks from foxes and wolves that still roam the hills of Palestine, speak with great wondering of last night's message from the sky.

The amazing light together with the chanting of a heavenly host has brought an incoherence to their speech; but the radiance of their faces is more impressive than any words could be.

"An angel of the Lord suddenly flashed before us, and the glory of the Lord shone all around us," one of them said.

"We were frightened but the angel said 'Have no fear. This is good news. I am bringing to you, news of great joy that is meant for all the people. Today you have a saviour born in the town of David, the Lord, Messiah. And here is a proof to you: you will find a baby wrapped up and lying in a stall for cattle.'"

"Then a host of heaven's army suddenly appeared beside the angel, extolling God and saying, 'Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.'"

"Having sung this song, the angels went back to heaven, the light faded away, and all was dark as before."

"We began talking together about these strange sights and sound," the shepherd related.

"We didn't stop to think what would happen to our flocks, or wait until morning, we went at once. When we saw all was as the angel had said, we told everyone about it."

Brilliant Star Presaged Secret Mystery of Birth

JERUSALEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—Eminent astronomers here admit to the appearance of a new star. They say that at infrequent periods stars, or novae, as they term them, suddenly appear with great brilliance, are evident for a time, then fade away.

Last night's star, they explain, resulted from the conjunction of the two great planets, Jupiter and Saturn.

Shopkeeper Has Doubts About Jesus

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—"All the excitement has made more business for my shop but I do not believe he is the Christ."

That was the opinion of the proprietor of a small shop here who has not yet visited the now famous birthplace of the infant Jesus.

"I really believe this is just something arranged to make more entertainment for taxpayer week," he went on. "Why, the true Christ will be so mighty that there will not be a doubt by anyone when he comes. That light was just a falling meteor and those sleepy shepherds were startled by it. You know how a story can grow."

He said he had been too busy to go along with the crowds to the stable, and added that the innkeeper would probably have more business than ever.

"I have an extra room here at the back," he said thoughtfully. "If I had only known—" and he hurried to wait on a customer.

Dogs and Sheep Overcome by Celestial Radiance

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—The shepherds' dogs and sheep were overcome also by the strange light from heaven last night, the men report.

Eyes of All Judea Turn to Bethlehem As Word Spreads

Appearance of Star Convinces Inhabitants New Baby is Prince

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25 — Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — The eyes of all Judea are turned with awe today upon this little town as word emanates from it that the long prophesied Messiah was born here last night.

Miraculous happenings and visitations of heavenly hosts which confounded them with radiance and divine song, lead inhabitants to believe that this is the prince of the throne of David, who Scriptures have said, will reunite the scattered tribes of Israel and reign over them as the son of God.

The appearance of a new star of great magnitude and luminousness, convinced them that it portends to the ancient prophecy.

The infant, born to Mary, a Jewish girl from Nazareth, who is the wife of Joseph, a carpenter, was first discovered by a group of shepherds who received the news of His birth from a

Astrologers See Tragedy, Sorrow For Holy Babe

JERUSALEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—Great tragedy will mark the future of the child born in Bethlehem, say this country's foremost astrologers. The stars, they say, reveal:

He will be in great danger while he is still an infant, and because of an attempt upon His life, many children will be killed.

He will live to be hailed in Jerusalem, but will later be rejected and betrayed by one close to him.

Crucifixion will be the manner of His death, and He will undergo unspeakable suffering.

There are other venerable men here, who read aloud pathetic words which foretell the sufferings of the promised Messiah.

These reveal that He will be "despised and rejected of men, a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief."

Their search of the records, it is believed, will continue for many weeks, and will entail many secret conferences with not only members of their craft, but with the priesthood in the temple itself. Whether their finding will be made public in detail is not known.

The astrologers added that this preliminary report of their findings as revealed by their efforts probably would be considerably altered by further study, and indeed, might be radically altered by results of research and study.

Magi's Wisdom Is Greatest in World Declares Caspar

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—This is what Caspar, one of the wise men, said about their belief:

"The wisdom of the Magi is the greatest of all wisdoms on earth, because it knows its own ignorance. And that is the secret of power. We worship fire as a symbol of Him. We keep men always looking and waiting for a new sunrise, but we ourselves understand that the darkness is equal to the light and that the conflict between them will never be ended."

Suppose That You Had Been in Arabia

Reprinted from the Arabian American Oil Company publication, The Aramco World.

Suppose, for the next few minutes, that you are a member of an Arab caravan, camped tonight beside one of the trails that cross the desert. The sun has long since set, the stars (which have always been such guides to the Arabs) are bright, and the night-time cold is setting in.

You pull your robe closer and are about to fall asleep when you hear the soft plodding of feet. You crawl to the tent flap and look out just in time to see a silent procession cross a dim, starlit dune.

But something puzzles you: this caravan isn't following the regular trails at all. It is cutting straight across-country, through deep unbroken sand. That makes for hard going, and you see that the camels and men are tired.

In the dark they pass your tent; three camels, each bearing a rider swathed against cold. Obviously these men are above average importance. After them come several more camels and men. The caravan is moving west.

And then you notice something else: high over the men rides a bright star. Although you've watched the stars on many nights you have never seen this one before.

Shivering a little, you crawl back and fall asleep. In the morning you think it was a dream; yet there are the tracks in the sand.

Something of the sort did happen approximately 1959 years ago this month; and scholars have been trying to find out about it ever since. The names of the three travelers are reported to have been Casper (or Kaspar) or Gaspard, Melchior and Balthasar. Where they were going is now well-known: Bethlehem. But where they came from still is hidden in the mists of time.

The Bible makes only fleeting references to the Magi, or Wise Men. The Gospels do not speak of the three Wise Men at all. St. Matthew says: "Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem, saying, 'Where is he that is born King of the Jews?' For we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him."

Thus Matthew does not say how many Wise Men there were. The tradition that there were three has generally come to be accepted; and yet in some forms the tradition says there were as many as twelve. Since the Bible is so universally read and studied, people over the intervening centuries have filled in other gaps in the Biblical information and today we feel we have a fairly clear picture of what the Wise Men looked like—and even how they dressed. After all, men have had 2,000 years in which to conjecture about them!

This much scholars know: More than 2,000 years ago, historians say, the "senior citizens" among the Jewish people seem definitely to have been expecting the coming of a Messiah. Other nations must have learned of this great hope. (The foretelling is found in many Roman writings.)

When Jesus was born near Jerusalem, word was passed among the Jews and reached the Magi, in whatever country they may have been. (Some think they were in Persia.) They set forth (or were sent) to pay homage. Why they did this is interesting. Scholars long have thought that magi were astrologers or magicians. But lately, Assyrian scholars have learned that the name connoted a sacred station; the men to whom it applied were "august" or "revered." (The Bible speaks of them as kings.) They were held in the highest reverence. No major step was taken without their advice. They were servants of God; as such, it was their duty to visit the new Messiah.

So much for the Wise Men. Now: what, if anything, is known about the Star? The Three Wise Men followed a bright star that rose in the east and evidently set in the west. Here is what St. Matthew says:

"And lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was."

Learned men from generations have tried to find out more about this star—a heavenly body which was so unusual that it attracted the attention of the sages. Was it a great star far out in space that flared up suddenly? Was it a comet? Some scholars think the planets Jupiter and Saturn swung into such a position that they appeared (from the earth) to be in "conjunction" as one great star.

If the two planets had moved together this way, however, Arab tribesmen as well as sailors of various nations, who have always watched the nightly movement of stars would certainly have seen the two planets moving closer together night after night. And it is reasonable to think that early history might have chronicled not only this spectacular sight but the reason for it. And so some students discount the Jupiter-Saturn theory.

But far back in old Chinese records occur an exciting hint with frankincense, myrrh and gold.

When they were asked if the commonplace surroundings seemed of keeping with Christ's significance, Melchior, this wise man, answered:

"The King we seek is not to be found in the palace, nor among the rich and powerful. If the light of the world and the glory of Israel had been appointed to come with earthly splendor, it must have happened long ago. For no son of Abraham will ever again rival the power which Joseph had in the palaces of Egypt or the magnificence of Solomon throned between the lions of Jerusalem. But the light for which the world is waiting is a new light, the glory that shall rise out of patient and triumphant suffering. And the kingdom which is to be established forever in a new kingdom, the royalty of unconquerable love."

An intimation of the uncertain future was voiced when he added: "I do not know how the turbulent kings and peoples of the earth shall be brought to acknowledge the Messiah and pay homage to Him. But this I know. Those who seek Him will do well to look among the poor and the lowly, the sorrowful and the oppressed."

The men seemed little disposed to talk about returning by way of Jerusalem and encountering Herod. There is a rumor that they are making the caravan ready to go through Egypt.

Wherever they go, they are followed constantly by crowds of both adults and children, their stateliness and air of wisdom being especially interesting.

darkness have seen a great light; they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the light shined. . . . For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulders, and his name shall be called WONDERFUL COUNSELOR, THE MIGHTY GOD, THE EVERLASTING FATHER, THE PRINCE OF PEACE, of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and justice henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.—Isaiah 9:2-7.

I will gather the remnants of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds. . . . And I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them, and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the Lord. Behold, the day come, saith the Lord, that I will raise unto David a righteous branch, and the king shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. . . . And this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD, OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.—Jeremiah 23:3-6.

Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops; he hath laid siege against us. They shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek. But thou, Bethlehem, Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall come forth unto me one that is to be ruler of Israel; whose goings forth have been from old, from everlasting. . . . And he shall stand, and feed in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God; and they shall abide; for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.—Micah 5:1-4.

In the sixth month the Angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, to a virgin spoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. And the angel came unto her, and said, Hail thou art highly favored, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women. And when she saw him she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be, And the Angel said unto her? Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found favor with God.

From the meager details gained from keepers of public places, it appears that Joseph had failed to make any reservations for lodging. The low temperature of the winter night forced them to the stable, where they made themselves as comfortable as they could in the straw. They suffered no ill effects from the experience, however, and those who visited the little family after the birth became known, report that an aura of light transformed the dingy surroundings into a place of beauty.

Mary indicated that she would call the child Jesus.

about it, he would journey there himself to pay homage.

Those who heard Herod's interview with these Eastern wise men say he was given only evasive answers.

Political commentators say it is understandable that Herod should feel uneasy at the rise of a leader who will capture the imagination of a discouraged people. His reign has been a singularly unhappy one due to the pressure from Rome.

The Emperor Augustus has lately accumulated foreign property and subjects through a campaign of military invasions, and controls about all in this part of the world that is worth taking. This has occupied the minds of the people, but has increased Roman extravagances. Palestine is one of these conquered countries and Herod is the king of Augustus's own choosing.

Some regard Herod's fear of a ruler who will overthrow him in a material sense as being unfounded.

They maintain that the significance of the Messiah is spiritual rather than political, and point out that he has always been prophesied as a Shepherd of Souls rather than a military deliverer.

Herod's nature, these commentators say, make it impossible for him to understand a Prince of Peace.

'TOWN COUNCIL' PROPOSED

Chamber Awards TV Set

20 Turkeys Also Given in Contest To Raise Funds

Frank Thomas, 3343 Olive Street, Lemon Grove, was chosen the winner Friday night of the color television set awarded by the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce in a contest to raise funds for a year-end obligation.

Thomas, who operates a Lemon Grove and Spring Valley rubbish collection firm, has James W. Figard, manager of the Pomona Valley Shopping Center and five other similar centers, will be the principal speaker at the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce annual dinner January 5 at the Lemon Grove Bowlero.

Figard is former promotion manager for Penney's. Dinner will be $4 a person and the affair is not restricted to chamber members.

been active in civic affairs. He is a chamber director.

Thomas also won the major prize offered by local merchants in 1957 in a Lucky Days promotion. The prize was $500 cash. Also in 1957, he won $110 in a baseball pool. His wife, Ruby, won $50 last year in a similar contest.

"We're just lucky," Thomas said.

In addition to the color television set valued at $825, twenty turkeys were awarded. Those getting holiday birds were:

H. L. Cummings, San Diego; E. A. Owings, El Cajon; Dick Mazy, Arcadia; E. E. Brady, San Diego, and Sandy Meadows, Imperial Beach.

Also: G. E. Nosain, San Diego; H. G. Goldy, Spring Valley; R. L. Owens, San Diego; Neil Ward, San Diego, and Peg Bell San Diego.

Also Eddy Morrison, San Diego; H. Skinner, Lemon Grove; Frank Ellis, San Diego; Burgur Handahl, Lemon Grove; Duff Cleaners, Lemon Grove; Ralph Rella, Lemon Grove; Dr. R. Schrock, Lemon Grove; Betty Brite, San Diego, and Gene Gregor, National City.

Larry Folda, president-elect of the chamber and chairman in charge of the fund-raising contest, said that nearly a thousand dollars profit has been made on the project. The chamber, he said, has until the end of the year to raise $2,100 to repay a loan made by George Scott, College Grove dept. store owner Scott, who is also a director of the Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce, said he would cancel the $2,100 obligation if the chamber could raise enough money to pay the debt by the year's end.

Folda said the chamber would thus profit to the extent of $4,200, an amount that would get the new chamber year off to a running start.

Fire Station Site Purchase Approved By Planners

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Approval of a site at Gillespie Drive and San Francisco Street, La Presa, for a fire station for the Spring Valley Local Fire District was approved Friday by the County Planning Commission.

The approval was voted with out any strings, after the commission refused to accept the recommendations of its staff that the location of the station or the site be changed.

Dr. Willis H. Miller, county planning director, urged the commission to have the fire district locate its station closer to San Francisco Street and further back on the lot. He said he had discussed this with the fire district representatives, but that the suggestion had met "no particular enthusiasm."

Commissioner Gilbert Ray said the district was only asking for approval of the site, so it could continue with the escrow and acquire the site.

The fire station is to be the subject of a bond election in April. But commissioners have indicated they will erect the station on a lease-purchase agreement, if the voters turn down the bond issue.

The DIMMER VIEW

by MAX GOODWIN

Once upon a Christmas-time there was a rancher in our community named Abe Mukai.

He operated a well-known ranch at the corner of Sweetwater Road and Palm Street at the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley boundary line.

Mr. Mukai raises, among other things, high quality tomatoes, a crop of which matures just before Christmas.

"How nice," Mr. Mukai mused to himself the other day, "to be able to share some of these red, firm tomatoes with some of the poor and hungry of our county."

So he called his local newspaper and spoke to the editor, a man of generous nature (some say) and asked his aid in distributing, without charge, 25 boxes of red, ripe tomatoes, each box weighing 23 pounds.

The editor called the County Welfare Department and the County Welfare Department was very grateful for the kind offer "but we do not distribute food or clothing. We direct requests for food and clothing to the Salvation Army," said Miss Carolyn Doolittle, assistant director of the San Diego County Welfare Department.

The editor pursued his task and contacted the Salvation Army which at first rejected the offer. "We don't normally distribute such perishable foodstuffs as tomatoes," Captain Albert Longdon of the Salvation Army explained. "Handling them would involve more manpower than we're able to muster."

But the next day, the Salvation Army was able to muster enough manpower to send a truck to the Mukai ranch and picked Jesse M. Hodge, president of the S.V. Chamber of Commerce, said last week that a zoning committee has been formed in Spring Valley to make extensive study of the zoning problem and to help property owners with their individual zoning problems and questions. Chet Smith has been named chairman of the group. Others on the committee are J. William Clark, Wilbur Zabel, David Bailey and Roy Myers. Smith, Clark and Zabel are members of the Chamber of Commerce.

Christmas Lighting Winners Told

Winners were announced Monday in the Lemon Grove Junior Chamber of Commerce-sponsored Christmas lighting contest:

2nd Place—Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mohr, 1276 Elkton Drive, Spring Valley Estates.

3rd Place—Mr. and Mrs. Lester Nation, 7240 Mt. Vernon, Lemon Grove.

Honorable Mention—Mrs. Leonard Foltz, 2951 Corona, Lemon Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cross, 7827 Longdale Drive, Lemon Grove.

NO LONGER SPEEDY — Lemon Grove Fire Department Capt. Harry Alexander consoles "Butch," the department's mascot. Butch was inspecting the new construction going on at the fire station and fell out of a second story window. He made a valiant effort to leap into a stairway, but missed, and broke his leg. Now when the fire bell sounds, he has to sit and wait for his buddies to return instead of jumping onto the fire truck to assist them at fires. He is expected to recover soon.

Planning Commission Approves Part Of Spring Valley Zoning Proposal

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The first part of the zone plan for the La Mesa Country Club area of Spring Valley was approved Friday by the County Planning Commission. After a hectic session three weeks earlier, with the commission chamber crowded and property owners clamoring to express opposition, Friday's action seemed tame and anti-climactic.

The commission approved the original planning department program, except for one minor addition.

The area affected is the eastern edge of the 320 acres on which the hearing was held on Nov. 27. This lies south of Campo Road and east of Bancroft.

The zoning approved Friday calls for residential use, single family dwellings, along the eastern and southeastern section and duplex dwellings on the southwestern edge. The only change from the plan proposed on Nov. 27 was an addition to the industrial zoning in the center of the area.

The ordinance that the commission approved for submission to the County Board of Supervisors will provide zoning protected by many who attended the previous hearing. Those most in favor of what the commission approved Friday were residents who live on the southern border of the district, but not in it.

At its next meeting, the commission is to receive an ordinance from its planning staff, with an attempt to meet the objections voiced by the property owners in the rest of the district. This area is more complex than that acted on Friday, for it has commercial zoning and more varieties of residential use, as well as a proposed industrial section.

The hearings have been closed by the commission, so no additional testimony can be taken. However, new hearings will be held by the Board of Supervisors, at which time further opposition is anticipated.

SONGSTERS ENTERTAIN

The 75-voice pupil chorus from Golden Avenue School in Lemon Grove entertained the Business Women's League with a program of Christmas carols at the league's meeting Thursday at Michael's Cafe.

He added that at the end of

Men's Club Members Eye Plan

Officers Elected, Start Movement For Coordination

The Lemon Grove Men's Club elected officers Friday and launched a movement which may result in its becoming a sort of "town council" for the community.

William F. Davies, an attorney, was elected president to succeed Capt. Jesse E. Lee. John Dail, insurance man, was elected vice president. Ken Rister, also an insurance man, was re-elected secretary-treasurer of the club.

In a general, open discussion following the election, members of the Men's Club explored the advisability of shaping the club into a "town council" which could act as the voice of the community in dealing with such governmental agencies as the County Board of Supervisors.

As such, it was suggested, it could serve as an adjunct to the Chamber of Commerce in working on community projects.

Davies, the new president, was instructed to name a committee to work out a policy for the club during the coming year. This committee would decide what course the club will take and whether it can develop into a "town council."

The Men's Club was formed in 1929 and is the "father" of all service clubs and other organizations in Lemon Grove. The club is open to all men in Lemon Grove and its meetings normally are attended by a representative cross section of the business community.

Carolers, Cops Differ on Use Of Holiday Spirit

The spirit of Christmas ran afoul of the spirit of the law Friday evening in Lemon Grove and so far nobody is quite sure which spirit won.

Sheriff's deputies were called to the intersection of Grove Street and Broadway when, they said, they received a complaint that carolers were singing so loud that patrons at Ace Drive In Theater couldn't hear the sounds of the movie on their car speakers.

Deputies arrived and discovered that the carolers were singing rather loudly, that the trailer, on which they were riding had no tail lights, and that the jeep which was towing the trailer had a broken wheel which was "about to fall off."

Police say they asked the carolers to go park somewhere and do their singing.

"They objected, and we had a little trouble with them," the deputies said.

Then, officers of the California Highway Patrol arrived to help clear up the traffic jam caused by the trailer, which was stopped in the middle of the street. It was pulled off to the side of the street and the patrol officers joined the argument.

No citations were issued. The carolers went away.

Man Asks Change, Gets Part Of What He Wants

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The County Planning Commission studied a request Friday by a Lemon Grove man who wanted a zone change for his property—then gave him part of what he wanted.

The property owner who got less than he asked was W. L. Tyson, who wanted apartment house zoning for part of his land, and C-2 for the rest in an area at Washington Street and Golden Avenue. The commission approved the commercial zoning, but turned down the request for the apartment house zoning.

A petition with 26 signatures was presented to commissioners in opposition to the intensive residential use that Tyson sought.

The commission made its okay of the commercial zoning conditional upon Tyson giving the county 15 feet of additional right of way along Washington Street.

TOP STUDENT — Graduation with Highest Honors, the top scholastic award presented by the Northrop Institute of Technology in Inglewood, was given to Norman Tosch of Lemon Grove when he was graduated Friday, it was announced by President James L. McKinley. Tosch was graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree and is one of 203 seniors in the fall quarter to receive diplomas from NIT. He resides at 2727 New Jersey Ave. During his three years of undergraduate work at NIT, Tosch received an A in every subject except two, in which he earned B's.

Grove Navy Man Helps Carry Gifts

WESTERN PACIFIC Spcl.) — Navy Lt. Cdr. Harmon C. Penny, son of Mrs. Ruth Wilson of Lemon Grove, serving aboard destroyer escort USS Jenkins, is en route to Japan with members of a special "Santa Claus Fleet" which is carrying clothing and toys to the underprivileged children and orphans.

The fleet, composed of four destroyers, left Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, Dec. 9, with the Christmas gifts which were donated by the citizens of our 50th state.

During the five-month cruise in the Far East, the vessels will operate as units of the U.S. Seventh Fleet, participating in anti-submarine and amphibious training exercises.

Besides visiting Japan, the "samaritan" crews will have liberty in Hong Kong and ports in Formosa and the Philippine Islands.

up a truckload of red, ripe tomatoes which were distributed to San Diego County's poor and hungry.

There isn't much of a moral to this story. The editor thought perhaps it was the type of Christmas story that could be clipped out and mailed to Aunt Mary back east. She would be happy to learn that nowhere but in San Diego County may the poor and hungry enjoy a handout of red, ripe tomatoes at Christmas time if an agency can be found to distribute them.

She may be a little disturbed by the inference that the agencies for good in San Diego County was something other than red, ripe tomatoes to distribute at Christmastime and the reader may suggest that this be money because distribution of money requires no hard labor.

And besides, it doesn't spoil.

Once in a great while, when the juices of human kindness have a tendency to slosh over as they do at Christmas time, this column attempts to exude nothing but sweetness and light.

When none of this holiday spirit can be self-generated we turn to other sources for the season's inspiration. This time we are copying a poem which is distributed from time to time by Mr. Tony Sonka, our citizen traffic engineer in charge of "day-lighting" corners.

Mr. Sonka reminds us often that some of our busy intersections are prone to causing accidents because corner shrubbery restricts the motorists' view. Through his prodding we have gotten several corners cleaned up and the shrubbery trimmed back.

With practically every note Mr. Sonka sends us, he includes a card with a poem printed on it. It is this poem which led us onto the path of human kindness. Whether he is the author of the matter he best can explain, but the stuff is pretty good, no matter who wrote it originally.

Boost the goods that you are selling,
Boost the people round about you,
They can get along without you,

If they know that you're behind them.
Boost for every forward movement,
Boost for every new improvement,

Suppose That You Had Been in Arabia

along about 4 B.C., the Chinese reported, a glowing evanescence appeared in the sky. What is not reported; the Chinese noted only the appearance of an "evanescent star." Thus from thousands of miles away comes another ancient report of a strange occurrence in the sky.

But this was in 4 B.C. Here might appear to be a serious stumbling block—until you realize that according to some computations Jesus actually may have been born between 4 and 6 B.C. According to some scholars the Christian calendar thus may be from four to six years "slow" (which would mean that the New Year now approaching would be, say, 1964 A.D. instead of 1960 A.D.).

Many people are accustomed to think that the Wise Men were present immediately after the birth of Jesus. (It's possible that some Christmas pageants, which necessarily "telescope" the beautiful events surrounding the Nativity, lend popular support to this idea. After all, the Wise Men are seen arriving at the manger bringing their gifts to the newborn Babe.) But scholars think many weeks—even months—may have elapsed.

On the way to see the Child, St. Matthew says, the Wise Men stopped off in Jerusalem to ask directions and were asked by King Herod "what time the star appeared." He told them to report back to him just where they found the Child so "that I may come and worship him also."

Arriving at the place where Jesus was, the Wise Men saw Him and His Mother, St. Matthew says, "and fell down, and worshipped Him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto Him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh."

Then, suspicious, that Herod wanted to kill the Child and warned in a dream, the Wise

Men chose another route home, (skipping Herod altogether and infuriating him.)

Herod now in frustration, and being unsure of Jesus' age, ordered all babies under the age of two in and near Bethlehem destroyed. Here again is an indication that the Wise Men's visit may have come even a year or more after the Nativity. This lapse of time is represented, too in the calendars of some churches. Epiphany, the feast which celebrates the coming of the Magi, is celebrated in many churches on January 6, twelve days after Christmas. Some churchmen think each day may represent a longer period of time, possibly a week or even a month.

Myrrh is a gum resin from a tree that grows in Arabia. It forms brittle, oily yellow drops used in incense and perfume. Frankincense is also a gum resin used in pharmacy and incense. It comes from a tree that resembles sumac and grows in India and Saudi Arabia.

What happened to the three strangers? No one really knows. But the legend is this: four hundred years after their deaths their bodies were discovered somewhere "in the East" and moved to Constantinople. Next they were taken to Milan. In 1163, Milan was destroyed, but not before the bodies had been saved and again removed—this time to Cologne.

And there in the great Cologne Cathedral, it is claimed to this day, lie the bodies of the Three Wise Men.

Three year old Ronnie Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Smith, formerly of Conrad Dr., and now in San Diego, had a near tragedy recently. He was reaching for some nuts on a shelf near the kitchen range, slipped and fell into a large pot of boiling water. Taken to Grossmont Hospital, his case was diagnosed as second degree burns. He is expected home soon. Ronnie is the grandson of Spring Valley's Watkins Products dealer, Walter Hamblin. Good luck Ronnie and Walter and a "Merry Christmas to you both."

HO, HO, HO!! Old Santa's wound up in Spring Valley with three more letters; all from children of the Stuckey family. Says Jimmy, "Dear Santa Claus; I would like a tent and some camping gear. A wood burning set too. A pair of shoes. To a watch."

Says Billy, "Dear Santa Claus I want some camping gear. Some trucks a thermos bottle, a gun, some ships, a desk, some candy and nuts for the family."

The other letter was unsigned, but Santa knows who. It read, "Dear Santa Claus, I want a truck a dirt truck some camping gear, some sleepers."

Schrupp said the deadline to pus evening program is January 4 for undergraduates and January 15 for graduate students.

All prospective students who are not currently enrolled in regular day classes or in the campus evening program must apply. Registration will be held February
6. Classes will begin February
8.

The bulletin lists 209 courses in 27 departments.

Schrupp said some late afternoon campus evening program from 7 to 9:40 p.m.

Junior College Registration Opens January 4

Registration for the spring semester at San Diego Junior College will begin the week of January 4, according to Mrs.
Margaret O. Olson, dean of students, who said returning students will have registration priority until Wednesday, January 20. The new semester begins
February 3.

Day students may register from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and evening students from 4 to 8 p.m.

Students planning to attend the junior college for the first time during the spring semester will begin registration January 21. However, Mrs. Olson urged new students to report to the Student Personnel office, 1425
Russ Blvd., as soon as possible beginning January 6 for information, counseling, and checking of records.

She said new students who apply early will have the best selection of classes.

The Junior College offers instruction and training in three major areas. They are:

General education, including such typical courses as science, mathematics, and English.

Business education, which offers training in such fields as pre-business administration, secretarial training, general office, and data processing.

Technical education, in which technical illustration, aircraft and powerplant mechanics, electronics, and machine shop are typical programs.

'Race for Space' Film A Cooperative Venture

The documentary film, "The Race For Space," is a picture which depicts, as the title implies, the frantic contest between the United States and the Soviet Union for propaganda and military advantages.

The fifty-minute Part No. 1 of this two-part documentary was previewed in the Screen Directors Guild Building before an invitation-only crowd.

The feature length picture had an unusual assemblage of actual footage that included American and Soviet rocket and space films never before seen by anyone outside the Intelligence Services.

The film gave an honest and startling appraisal of the controversial events that led to the United States' present position in the race for space.

Narrated by Mike Wallace, the Wolper, Inc., production will be seen very shortly as a television spectacular. It is an hour of educational entertainment nobody in your family can afford to miss.

The background music was composed and conducted by Elmer Bernstein with Jack Haley Jr. assisting as associate producer. "Race" had the full co-operation of the Department of Defense, U.S.A., and the Ministry of Culture, U.S.S.R. It was produced and directed by David L. Wolper. —B.T.

Troop 168 Honors Scoutmaster Krauss

Boy Scouts of Troop 168 and their fathers were among nearly 100 persons honoring Mike Krauss Saturday night at a testimonial dinner given at the parish hall of St. John of the Cross Church.

The troop, of which Krauss is Scoutmaster, gave him a plaque and a certificate. Boy Scout headquarters gave him the plaque of honor. Other gifts were given during the course of the dinner meeting.

The speakers included Roy Williams who was in charge of the affair, The Rt. Rev. Msgr. John McDonagh of St. John of the Cross Church, and Max Goodwin, editor of the Lemon Grove Review.

Krauss has been scoutmaster of the troop for nine years. He lives at 7572 North Ave., Lemon Grove.

Masonic Sojourners Get High 12 Club Bid

All master Masons in good standing are invited to visit the weekly meetings of the Mt. Helix High Twelve Club held every Thursday noon at Michael's in Lemon Grove, it was announced this week by Ray Lynch, club president.

He said that the club's motto is "food, fun and fellowship" and that meetings are conducted in that vein.

Masonic sojourners are particularly urged to attend a meeting or two, he said.

Among those in charge of bringing visitors to the meetings and their telephone numbers are: Cy Gould, HO 6-8984; Barney Saunders, HO 6-3353; Jolly Benbrook, HO 6-5453; Bill Gritz, CO 4-5025, and Louis Russ, JU 2-8119.

Fire Department Has Busy Time

The Spring Valley Fire Dept. had a busy three days, Dec. 13-15, with one fire call and five ambulance runs.

A fire call came in at 4:30 p.m. on Dec. 13. A trash barrel in a garage at 8925 Lamar St., had caught fire and did considerable damage to the walls of the garage.

Chris Stahl of 3242 San Carlos Dr., who was picking mistletoe with Cub Scouts on Dehesa Rd., on Dec. 12, fell from a tree and sustained an injured back and several broken bones. He was taken to Grossmont Hospital.

There were three ambulance runs on Dec. 13. In the first case, a jeep towing a trailer went out of control on Sweetwater Ave., near Beauty Shop Ln. and the trailer turned over in the ditch. Driver of the jeep was Roderic Ramirez of 1724 Garrison Way, El Cajon. His ten year old son, James Paul, was a passenger. The son sustained a fractured right leg and was taken to Grossmont Hospital. The father was unharmed.

At Jamacha Rd. and Sweetwater, the same day at 7:19 p.m., Mrs. Ethel Inman of 7381 Miner-va Dr., San Diego was hurt in an auto accident and taken to Grossmont. The report states she injured her neck.

Then at 9:01 p.m. a call came in for the ambulance to go to

Campo Rd. and Granada St. Two teen-agers: Lynn Nelson 19, of 5811 Yorkshire, La Mesa, and Sigfried Lande, 18, of 1037 Chal-

cedony, Pacific Beach, lost control of their car, and went into a ditch. Neither one was hurt.

The ambulance crew was called to 8746 Tyler St., at 9:46 a.m.

on Dec. 15, where they administered oxygen to Floyd Davison of 9952 Dolores. A doctor arriving later pronounced Davison dead. Funeral services for him will be held Saturday.

Zone Change Bid Brings Grove Man Part of Request

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A zone change for a Lemon Grove property owner was voted Friday by the County Planning Commission, but it was less than the applicant sought.

The commission approved C-1 zoning for seven-tenths of an acre on Sweetwater Road, north of Jamacha. The applicant, Harry H. Applegate, asked for C-2, which permits light manufacturing. E. Kucher, who said he spoke for his father, the owner of five adjoining acres, asked the commission to delay its action so their land could be included. He said once a change had been voted, the commission sometimes won't approve rezoning for other land, so he wanted to be sure his father's was included.

Commission chairman C. J. Martain said, "This is not a fair request. You shouldn't seek to hold up this applicant, who has paid his money for this hearing."

The approval of C-1 was unanimous, and Applegate said it was satisfactory to him.

Postal Receipts At Record High

County postal receipts are up 23 per cent over the same period a year ago according to Lemon Grove Postmaster F. R. (Frenchy) Faucher. He said the current Christmas mail in all categories is estimated to be in the greatest volume on record.

"We wish to thank local patrons for their continued cooperation in making the record mail movement possible with a minimum of window waiting and delivery delay," he said.

Faucher said that he and his workers extend heartfelt season's greetings to all postal patrons and suggested a book containing 25 cent U.S. Savings Stamps in $2.50 or $5 sizes as a last minute gift suggestion.

The Bible Lands Today

Christ's life was hard and full of suffering, but it served to light the way to a fuller, more meaningful existence for mankind and to a richer life after death. It is understandable that the inhabitants of Jordan, where these wonders took place, nurture a humble pride that these villages and hills witnessed the marvelous works of Christ.

On this page today, we bring you a series of pictures of how these Bible Lands appear today. We are indebted to the Arab Information Center in New York for the photographs.

Bethlehem City Of Significance In History

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1.—This little whitewalled city, surrounded by its hills, vineyards and olive yards, has a significant history. It is about six miles south of Jerusalem, the largest city in Palestine, which is itself a little land, being only about 200 miles in length and 50 miles broad.

More than a thousand years ago, David, as a lad, kept his father's sheep in the very hills and valley where the shepherds last night received their heavenly visitation. One mile northwest of Bethlehem, thick, dark forests of cedar cloister the brow of the hill where is to be found the well of Sauk Here the Prophet Samuel anointed him first King of Israel.

It was to Bethlehem that Ruth and Naomi returned.

Now Micah's prophecy has been proved true concerning the town as the birthplace of the Christ: "But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall come forth unto me He that is to be ruler of Israel."

1. To Palestine was granted the most precious gift of all time, for it was here that Jesus Christ was sent to bring the will of God to all living creatures. The "Little Town of Bethlehem," now in Jordan, still lies peacefully in the December sun. Chosen as the birthplace of Christ, this unassuming village has witnessed the pageant that is Christianity from its earliest second.

3. Shepherds still patiently tend their flocks in the hills near Bethlehem. It was to shepherds such as these that an Angel appeared telling them of the marvelous birth that was taking place in their village.

5. Above this orange grove in Jericho rises Mt. Temptation where Christ was tempted for forty days. A Monastery built on the cliff-like slopes commemorates the event.

8. A devout throng takes up the cross on the same path where a Roman centurion once had to draft a worker to help the struggling Jesus with his burden.

God's Minute

REV. H. C. BAKKEN

"CHRIST-CHILD"

Christ means the "Anointed One." He was anointed by God The Father to be the Savior of men. As Christ is The King. The King came to redeem His subjects. As a child, He received a human body from the Virgin Mary. He must be a man to redeem man. So, He is God and man in one person. God gave us at Christmas His own Son, the God-Man, who can bring man into fellowship with His God.

2. The Grotto of the Nativity, in the Church of the Nativity, marks the stable behind the inn in which there was no room. The fourteen-pointed star on the floor marks the manger in which the Holy Infant was placed in his swaddling clothes.

4. Perhaps the most sacred spot in all Christendom, the Vale of Sorrow lies close to the walls of the Arab sector of Jerusalem. At lower right is the Church of all Nations. Near by is the Garden of Gethsemane where Christ spent his last hours of agony before his march to Calvary.

6. The beautiful Garden of Gethsemane, where Christ prayed during the last few hours of his life, is lovingly tended by monks. It was here that Jesus realized the sacrifice he must make to redeem mankind from sin.

7. The "Way of the Cross" is hard. And so it was on that fateful day when Jesus struggled with his burden down this narrow street in Old Jerusalem on the way to Calvary.

9. The Chapel of the Raising of the Cross marks the place where the crosses of Jesus and the two thieves stood. On this spot, in his last agony, Christ compassionately pardoned the thief.

10. On this marble slab, now in the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, the body of Christ was placed when it was taken from the cross. It was to this spot that the Angel came to release the Master from the bonds of death.

Witnesses Offer Color Movie Of Assembly

Edgar A. Flinn, presiding minister of the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, has announced that he has arranged for a free showing of the 1 1/4-hour color film "Divine Will International Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses" at the Kingdom Hall, 9052 Lamar, Spring Valley, Friday evening December 25, at 7:30.

The public press, newsreel and other news channels gave worldwide attention to this assembly, he said, acclaiming it as the world's largest Christian convention. A quarter million delegates were present from 123 lands.

The film shows scenes of the mass baptism of more than 7,000 persons at one of New York's beaches. Two giant cafeterias feeding 1,000 meals a minute were operated by 12,000 volunteer workers. The tremendous pre-convention preparations to house 140,000 persons in the hotels and private homes of New York City also are shown.

Flinn described the film as informative and educational and "of interest to all persons interested in godly living and world peace."

Sunday School Class Gives Self-Made Gift

The theory that a big class should do big things was much in evidence Sunday morning at the Foothills Methodist Church, when 25 children from the Junior Sunday School presented Rev. James King with a mosaic.

The mosaic, made of linoleum tile, is three feet wide and four feet high.

The present, which is for the newly planned church, has been worked on by the children for the past two months, under the direction of Mrs. Leonard Weaver, Sunday School teacher. Twenty minutes was taken from class each Sunday for the work.

Mrs. Weaver said that at the church services the Junior class made the presentation following their singing two Christmas selections. Rev. King's sermon was appropriately entitled, "The Meaning of the Gift."

Rev. Samuel Nichols, pastor of the Collegiate Methodist Church of Ames, Iowa, will be guest speaker at Foothills at the 10 a.m. services, on Sunday. A report has it that Rev. Nichols has enjoyed one of the longest pastorates in Iowa Methodist history, serving his present church for 25 years. A $300,000 scholarship fund was established in Rev. Nichols' name recently, to help youth of Iowa State University associated with Collegiate Church and Wesley Foundation, who are going into full-time professional Christian service. Rev. Nichols is the father of Mrs. Helen Baer, Foothills choir director.

Dr. Nichols' text Sunday will be "Student Recognition Sunday." The services will be under the direction of Stephen Casner, a Spring Valley youth at San Diego Junior College.

NEW BRIDE — Gail Lee Minnis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Minnis, 3465 Helix St., Spring Valley, became Mrs. Kenneth R. Kuykendall, in a quiet wedding ceremony in Yuma, Ariz., Dec. 9. The bride is a graduate of Mt. Miguel High School, class of 1958, and is employed at the San Diego Merchants Credit Association. The groom, who is in the Navy and attending I.B.M. school at North Island, is a five of Missouri. The newly weds are living in Coronado.

Trinity Lutheran Church Dedicates New Building

Trinity Lutheran Church, forced to move from its former location by the construction of the Lemon Grove Freeway, dedicated its new $200,000 church building Sunday morning.

The new location is 7210 Lisbon St. between Encanto and Lomita Village.

The Rev. Paul A. Hilgendorf, pastor of the church since 1940, conducted the dedicatory service.

The initial building project includes a sanctuary with office, study, nursery, sacristy, choir facilities and a social hall. Only half of the social hall has been built. Classrooms and a parsonage are to be constructed later, Rev. Hilgendorf said.

The church seats 500 and has a large parking lot.

A high altar, shipped from Norway 175 years ago, which was a feature of the old church has been transferred to the new location and installed in the new church.

Mrs. R. H. Crutchett, organist and choir director, aided in the dedicatory services.

A service of praise was held in the afternoon, with the Rev. Victor L. Behnken, president of the Southern California district, as guest speaker.

The church was designed by Frank L. Hope, architect, and was built by W. B. Melhorn, general contractor.

COUNTY MUSIC

A program of Christmas music will be presented by the County Employees' Association Band on the west steps of the San Diego Civic Center Wednesday noon, Dec. 23, from 12:25 to 12:45 p.m. it was announced today by George Schwegel, President of the San Diego County Employees' Association. This will make the eleventh year such a program has been presented by the association at the Civic Center.
